

CAS Newsletter – 13 September 2021

Dear Members,

Just a quick reminder that Elizabeth Baldin will be demonstrating painting farmyard animals in pen, acrylic ink and wash this Thursday evening.

Covid Rules

We will not be taking bookings for demonstrations, as we did before the summer break, but we would still ask you to wear a mask whilst moving round the hall which you may remove once seated. The windows and doors will remain open for ventilation, so please be aware that the hall may be colder than usual.

We will not be providing refreshments at half time, but you are welcome to bring your own with you if you wish.

Thursday 16th September - Elizabeth Baldin will be demonstrating painting farmyard animals in pen, acrylic ink and wash.

This is an evening meeting - doors open at 6.00pm and the demo starts at 6.45pm until 8.45pm.

Elizabeth, as you will remember if you attended her demo in 2019, uses bright colours to produce lively images so this promises to be an interesting evening

She is doing a follow up workshop on Thursday 23rd September, so if you are interested, please sign up on the sheet on the notice board, contact Julie on 01243 779091 or email her at yankyduly@talktalk.net to book your place.

Thursday 30th September - Jake Winkle Workshop

Jake is doing a demonstration/work shop of A Street Scene in watercolour.

Jake, as you will know if you have ever done a workshop with him before, demonstrates in easy steps throughout the workshop. His loose, colourful way of using watercolour always produces an amazing picture.

There is a sheet on the notice board if you wish to sign up for this, contact Julie on 01243 779091 or email her at yankyduly@talktalk.net to book your place.

Thursday 7th October - Julie King will be demonstrating painting flowers in loose watercolour.

This is a morning meeting - Doors open at 9.30am and the demo starts at 10.15am to 12.15pm

Julie is an experienced and inspiring water colourist based in Kent. After graduating with a first-class degree in textile design, Julie worked as an in-house designer of household textiles before freelancing for several years creating fabrics, wallpapers and designs for ceramics. She is the author of two books, 'How to paint 'Flowers in Watercolour' and 'Iris in Watercolour'.

New Look Website

If you haven't visited our new look website, please do. It is really easy to navigate and has all the up-to-date information on CAS activities including the latest Newsletter. Just google Chichester Art Society and you are there.

Library Books

If you have not yet returned the library books you had on loan from the beginning of lockdown, and we still have many outstanding, please try and remember to bring them along to meetings. There will be a labelled box for you to put them in.
